Robinsons Retail Buys a Three-Store Supermarket Chain

Robinsons Retail Holdings, Inc.(RRHI) through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Robinsons Supermarket Corporation, agreed to acquire by way of share purchase a 100% interest on “Jaynith’s Supermarket”, a three-store supermarket chain owned and operated by JAS 8 Retailing Management Corporation subject to closing conditions. The three stores are located at Pasig, Metro Manila, San Mateo, Rizal and Calamba, Laguna.

Jaynith’s Supermarket started operating in April 2001. In 2012, the three-store supermarket chain generated approximately Php740 million in sales.

Robinsons Supermarket ended 2013 with 91 stores nationwide. It is targeting to open approximately 20 to 22 stores in 2014.

Robinsons Retail finished 2013 with a total of 1,064 stores or an addition of 152 stores from 2012. Approximately 24% of the new store openings in 2013 are located in the Visayas and Mindanao regions and 42% are in Luzon outside of Metro Manila. This is in line with RRHI’s plan to open more stores outside of Metro Manila.
